

49th Conference of Irish Geographers Programme

Thurs 4th May

	ROOM 156	ROOM 101	ROOM 255	ROOM 132
Session 1: 11.00-12.30	Housing crisis, neoliberalism and the right to the city Chair: Philip Lawton Michael Murphy Financing and planning the suburbs in post crash Ireland... Rory Hearne: Post-crisis financialisation and the Right to the City in Dublin Eoin O'Mahony Spaces of the looming ghetto: O'Devaney Gardens and the marginalisation of public housing Mary Broe Respecting the traditional use of gathering places in 'Place Making'	Supporting Women in Geography (SWG) Ireland Roundtable Karen Till Francis Fahy Mary Greene Lidia Manzo Katherine Brickell Rachel McArdle Aoife Delaney	Regimes of energy citizenship: Thinking beyond market driven paradigms Chair: Niall Dunphy Brefni Lennon, Niall Dunphy: Empowering the Energy Citizen? Experience and Perspective at the Interface of the Energy Transition Christine Gaffney, Niall Dunphy: Home is where the energy citizen lives Robert Wade: Community energy: case study research of Comharchumann Fuinneamh Oileáin Arainn Eimear Heaslip: Low Carbon Energy Communities in Irish Islands: A Transdisciplinary Approach	Trespasses: Disruptive religious-spiritual movements and spaces Gerry O'Reilly: Geography and The Quest for Paradise David Butler: Layout and L(Attitude): Reformed Church Evolution in Nineteenth Century Ireland Richard Scriven: Pro-life Pilgrimages: the intersection of politics and religion at Irish pilgrimage sites	Posters in social areas
Lunch: 12.30-13.40	Postgraduate Meeting
Session 2: 1340-1510	Temporality in the city Chair: TBC Rachel Mc Ardle and Aoife Delaney: Temporality and emergencies Diarmuid Kelliher: The temporalities of solidarity: London and the 1984-5 British miners' strike Joe Robinson: The Past is Never Dead: Bloody Sunday after the Inquiry Katherine Brickell: Pop-up Homes: Resident Insights from PLACE/Ladywell, London	Art and Geography (1): Navigating Spaces of Transgression Chair: Nessa Cronin Emma Houlihan 'Following the Forgotten Path' Pauline O'Connell 'The Politics of Narrative - speaking back as a disruptive practice' Aoife Kavanagh 'Building, Sustaining and Navigating Musical Ecologies of Place in Irish Towns' Discussant: Iain Biggs	Regimes of energy citizenship: Thinking beyond market driven paradigms (2) Chair: Niall Dunphy Clodagh Harris, Niall Dunphy, Gerard Mullally: Designing citizens' forums for active and inclusive energy citizenship Paul O'Connor, Niall Dunphy Local Energy: The Role of Belonging, Place and Identity in the Energy Transition John Morrissey, Stephen Axon, Rosita Aiesha, Joanne Hillman: Community perspectives: local voices on energy transition Irene Morris: Environmentalities and the spatial impacts of residential energy policies on Ireland's energy landscape	Upland Environments: Drivers of Change Chair: Eileen O'Rourke and Caroline Crowley Caroline Crowley & Brendan O'Keefe: Socioeconomic profile of Upland areas. Eileen O'Rourke: High Nature Value Hill Farming on the Iveragh Peninsula and its Landscape implications. Helen Shaw: Palaeoecology and landscape history in Ribblesdale, Cumbria. Susan Hegarty, Ben Gearey, Ellen O'Carroll & Suzi Richer: Seeing beyond the site: palaeoenvironmental reconstruction in south-east Ireland
Session 3: 15.25-16.55	Temporality in the city (2) Chair: Dr. Cian O' Callaghan Joanne Ahern: Planning and Vacancy in an Irish Housing Estate Christine Bonnin and Niamh Moore-Cherry: Rethinking the temporal politics of urban redevelopment: Moore Street, Dublin and its marketplace at the intersection of livelihoods, planning and heritage Claudio Coletta: Configuring time in the smart city: the multiple rhythms of urban management and infrastructures	Art and Geography (2): Disruptive Practices: Occupying Difficult Spaces Chair: Karen E. Till Gerry Kearns 'A Platform for Art' Vukasin Nedeljkovic 'Asylum Archive: an Archive of Asylum and Direct Provision in Ireland' Gisele Eugenia Connell 'Counter-cartographies of "Place" in a community AIDS Quilt' Michael McLoughlin 'Who Draws the Map?: Tracing Community (social and institutional) Through Art Making and Audio Cartography' Discussant: Karen E. Till	Community energy transitions: Shifts in perceptions, consumption and control Chair: Niall Dunphy Alexandra Revez & Niall Dunphy: Generational aspects of energy behaviour: energy practices among university students in University College Cork, Ireland Gary Goggins, Richard Manton, and Jamie Goggins: Recruitment, decision-making and experiences of an energy retrofit scheme in a rural community Frances Fahy: ENERGISE: Developing an Energy Cultures Framework for Europe? Mary Greene: Socio-technical transitions and	Rewilding Chair: Kieran Hickey, UCC Margaret O'Rordan, John McDonagh, Marie Mahon: Insights into the cultivation of environmental values in Irish peatlands conservation John O'Callaghan: Rewilding a West of Ireland Landscape – an interim report on rewilding the Nephinbeg Wilderness area for future generations Kieran Hickey: An Assessment of the feasibility of reintroducing the wolf Canis lupus into Ireland Michael John Whelan: From the Mountain, 2014, single channel HD video, black+white, sound
Keynote Plenary: 17.05-18.30	Dr Bradley Garrett, Countering Geographies of Dread (Geography Lecture Theatre, Geography Building) Chair: Denis Linehan

Fri 5th May

	ROOM 156	ROOM 101	ROOM 255	ROOM 132
Session 1: 09.00-10.30	Infrastructural States Karen Keaveney Rural Housing as and of Infrastructure Caspar Menkman The smart meter in parenthesis: the ontological politics of the device Ralitsa Hiteva Governing Infrastructure values Alan Patterson Infrastructure governance and the emergence of a 'not for profit' utilities sector in the UK	Legal Geographies in Ireland Chair:Kathy Reilly Rory Rowan: Owning Outer Space?: The Emerging Legal Geographies of Extra-Planetary Extraction. Sasha Marks Brown Evidence and Absence in Investigating the Irish Refugee Appeals Tribunal Archives Louise Sarsfield Collins: Echoing through the years: an exploration of the lasting legacy of the Offences Against the Person Act, 1861 Katherine Brickell and Dana Cuomo: Feminist Geolegalities	Denial, deception and disruption: addressing the challenges and potential solutions to fix a broken food system (1) Chair: Colin Sage Tara Kenny The new era of food poverty: commodification and corporatisation Mags Adams Denials and deceptions: disrupting the myth of food as waste Anna Davies, Marion Weymes Disruptive technologies? Scaling relational geographies of ICT-mediated surplus food redistribution	Earth Observation developments in physical geography John Connolly: Mapping Peatland Drains Conor Cahalane, Dáire Walsh & Tim McCarthy: Slick Feature Mapping Parvez Rana, Fiona Cawkwell, Preethi Balaji, Stuart Green: Integration of high resolution optical and microwave satellite imagery for quantification of small-scale forest disturbance events.
Session 2: 11.00-12.30	Infrastructural States (2) Mark Boyle and Andrew McLelland The contested values which undergird inventorising infrastructure as heritage Denis Linehan Aeolian Enclosures: Wind, Sky and Infrastructural Publics in contemporary Ireland. Patrick Bresnihan 'Optimizing Water Services': Environmental Accounting, Water Pricing and the Techno-Politics of Water Infrastructures Katherine Lovell Attending to mature infrastructure systems: reconfiguration, contestation and decline.	GSI Doctoral Research Award presentations Introduction Eimear Heaslip Joyce Novak Kieran McCarthy Paul Alexander Richard Scrivan	Denial, deception and disruption: addressing the challenges and potential solutions to fix a broken food system (2) Chair: Tara Kenny Mike Goodman, Colin Sage Food denialism, climate change sceptics and the politics of (social) science Bridin Carroll Reshaping urban political ecologies: An analysis of policy trajectories to deliver food security Eifiona Thomas Lane, Rebecca Jones and Jane Ricketts Hein Foods from catchment to coast – responsible development of rural foodscapes	Disruptive Hazards, Weathers and Climates Jim Jeffers: Disruptive hazards and climates: Making sense of ambiguity Kieran Hickey: A comparison of the 2009 and 2015-16 flooding in Ireland and its historical context Trish Morgan & Paschal Preston: Climate change: fake news or ideology? Combining insights from geography and critical communication theory. Carla Mateus, Aaron Potito & Mary Curley: Methodology for quality control and homogenisation of the long term daily (max/min) summer and winter air temperature records in Ireland.
Lunch: 12.30-13.30		SWG AGM
Session 3: 13.30-15.00	Infrastructural States (3) Darach Mac Donncha The politics surrounding the proposed implementation of a smart lighting system Daniel Tubridy A Design-led Approach to Sustainable Urban Infrastructure Darren O'Rourke Power relations and spatialised discourse in acute hospital reconfiguration in Ireland Padraig Carmody: Post-Commodity Africa: Industrial Policy as Assemblage	Art and Geography (3): Alternative Engagements: Counter-Mappings Chair: Gerry Kearns Zoë A. Meletis & colleagues 'Who's disrupting whom? Reflections on process-related and personal learning in an arts-science-engagement climate change project called Art, Change, & Creativity, in Prince George, BC (Canada)' Kate Flood "Taming the wilderness": mapping visual representations of a peatland landscape through time John Sunderland 'Land~Edge: Disrupted photographic practice on a bioregional edge' Discussant: Anna Davies	Rural Revitalisation: Valuing Local Heritage Communities Chair: Mark Rylands Shane O'Sullivan & Cathy Jones: Social Enterprise: A Strategy for Rural Socio-Economic Rejuvenation? Ray O'Connor & Mark Rylands: Rural Development in Ireland: an overview of strategies to revitalise rural areas 1845-2017 Mary O' Shaughnessy: How effective is external policy support and funding in empowering rural communities? A case study of rural revitalisation from rural Ireland	Coastal Geomorphology Eugene Farrell, Kevin Lynch, Sinead Wilkes Orozco, & Guillermo Castro Camba: The response and recovery of coastal beach-dune systems to storms Robert Devoy: Coastal barrier system changes in Ireland under climate warming and their significance for coastal people and future land uses	Posters in social areas

Session 4:
15.20-16.50

Formatting urban policy: Urban policy mobilities in Ireland and beyond	Healthy Natures	Rural Revitalisation: Valuing Local Heritage Communities	Disrupting Imagined Geographies: Media, Power and Representation
Chair: Karen Till (TBC) Philip Lawton: 'Between Slow Transfer and Fast Mediation: The case of the 'The Quito Papers'' Niamh Moore and John Tomaney: Metro-phobia? The politics of spatial planning in Dublin Rob Kitchin, Claudio Coletta, Leighton Evans, and Liam Heaphy: The multiscale circuits of smart cities policy mobility Mark Boyle: Governing Policy transfer in the EU - the case of Urbact III	Sonya Agnew: Growing fruit, vegetables and sustainability in urban community gardens Olodunsin Arodudu, Ronan Foley Michael Brennan, Gerald Mills, Tine Ningal, Malachy Bradley: Green-Blue Infrastructures: A Health-Led Approach. Mike Brennan, Gerald Mills & Tine Ningal: Deprivation and Trees: spatial inequality of urban tree canopy cover in Dublin city. Owen Douglas, Mick Lennon and Mark Scott: From 'distribution' to 'opportunity': Planning for inclusive green spaces	Chair: Ray O'Connor Liam Mannix: Heritage led regeneration during the age of austerity Mark Rylands: Myths, Facts and Hidden Heritage – Revitalising rural areas by leveraging local assets to reveal people and place. Rural Revitalisation Roundtable Karen Ray: Beyond Beauty: Landscape Appraisal and Planning in Rural Environments	Chair: Dr Kathy Reilly Gerry O'Reilly: Discourse or rhetoric? Framing the "others" from humanitarian perspectives Ryan Brown: Deconstructing Crisis: Refugees, Representation, Responses Anthony O' Reilly: Media Representations in 'The City After Terrorism' Natasha Keenaghan: Representing humanitarianism: Mediating alternatives across ambiguous discourses Tara Woodyer: Lucid Geopolitics: playing with imaginative geographies of war
Prof. Jenny Pickerill, Disrupting the environment: Eco-communities and the reconfiguration of place, (Geography Lecture Theatre, Geography Building) Chair: Colin Sage

Keynote
Plenary :
17.05-18.30

Sat 6th May

ROOM 156	ROOM 101	ROOM 255	ROOM 132
Lived Spaces of Austerity	Innovating and Disrupting Geographical Research Methods	Electoral Geography	Disruptions and the Urban Environment
Lidia Manzo & Sinead Kelly: Lived experiences of resistance and solidarity among working-class communities in Dublin's post-crash gentrification. Rory Hearne: The Irish Water War: Ireland's Delayed Anti-Austerity Movement & New Spaces of Contentious Politics in Ireland. Cian O'Callaghan & Cesare Di Felicianonio: Subjectivity and the situated (re)production of urbanization through contested vacancy, housing and homelessness in post-crisis Dublin. Sander van Lanen: Constructing austerity experiences: connecting the personal and structural through the lifeworld assemblage.	Chair: Therese Kenna Preeti Balaji: 'Characterization and monitoring of forest disturbances in Ireland using active Microwave satellite platforms' Grainne Nic Lochlainn: 'Mapping digital contention networks: social media, GIS, and the anti-water charges movement in Co. Dublin' Elisabetta Rosa: "Entrer, sortir, traverser". A visual ethnography at the margins of the city Rosie Howlett Southgate: 'Expanding the Archives: Social Media Data Harvesting for Human Geography' Aoife Corocorn: 'Maps and Apps as Pedagogic Tools'	Chair: Claire McGing/Adrian Kavanagh Adrian Kavanagh: The Eurovision Song Contest: Voting Patterns, Politics and Geography Caoilfhionn D'arcy: Best of both worlds? Identity, Place and Politics in the election campaigning of Sinn Féin Claire McGing: Political parties and women's recruitment as Dáil Éireann candidates, 2011-2016: the impact of localism William Durkan: Political Disengagement, Under-Representation, and Spaces of Neglect in the Current Political System	Chair: Paul Alexander & Gerald Mills Alexander, Paul J.; O'Dwyer, Barry; Nolan, Paul; Climate change impacts on heat exposure across the greater Dublin region Chaosheng Zhang: Pollution hotspot analysis in urban soil geochemistry Tine Ningal et al. UCD A remote sensing approach to extracting tree canopies in Dublin City Centre Gerald Mills: Using WUDAPT to explore urban exposure to climate change hazards Buckley Niall, Mills Gerald & Fealy Rowan The geography of Dublin's building stock and energy demand	Posters in social areas

Session 2: 11.20-12.50	Lived Spaces of Austerity (2)	Life post-PhD	Contemporary Geographies	River science towards the management of freshwater systems	Art & Geography (4) Geography Library
	Jon-Paul Faulkner: Household vulnerability and resilience after a global economic shock: evidence from Ireland. Caitriona Ni Laoire: Young people, return mobilities and spaces of austerity: the reproduction of intergenerational transnational families. Shane Conway: Blood, Sweat and Tears: Symbolic Power and the Insidious Pervasiveness of Symbolic Violence in the Family Farm Transfer Process.	Panel: Kathy O'Reilly Richard Scriven Rory Hearne Irene Morris	Tasleem Shakur and Rory Flood: Oh, East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet: Cross cultural/political perspectives of combining Human and Physical geographies and its impact on teaching and learning Mary Gilmartin and Patricia Burke Wood: Bordering citizenship: Ireland, Britain and Brexit Chris Brunsdon and Martin Charlton: Using animations to visualise correlation structures in multivariate spatial data Arlene Crampsie: Tracing the historical geography of social exclusion in Ireland Shelagh Waddington: What is primary geography and who knows about it?	Chair: Jonathan Turner Xavi Monteys, Physiographic units map of Ireland supporting hydromorphology classification methods. Anna Rymaszewicz, J.J. O'Sullivan, M. Bruen, J.N. Turner, D. Lawler, E. Conroy & M. Kelly-Quinn Investigating Suspended Sediment Yields and Sediment Regimes in Irish Agricultural Catchments: Colm Casserly, The Hydromorphology of Obstacles to Flow in Irish Rivers. Anna Rymaszewicz, Modelling Annual Suspended Sediment Yields in Irish River Catchments. Linda Heerey, High resolution monitoring of water parameters on Achill Island, Co. Mayo. Alex Murray/Jonathan Turner, Urban River Survey of the River Dodder, Co. Dublin. Patrick Belmont, Purpose built participatory modeling:	Jenny Anghelie Papassotiriou, Making Philosophy Space: having a go at using "the best", "the rest", "the enemy"
Lunch		GSI AGM
Field Excursions	Excursion through the Lee Valley - 1:30pm - 5:30pm Kieran Hickey and Diarmuid Crowley		Walking tour of food landmarks in Cork City - 1:30pm - 3:30pm Colin Sage and Tara Kenny
Posters on display throughout Conference in ORB social areas	Margaret O'Riordan, John McDonagh & Marie Mahon: Legitimacy discourses on Irish Peatlands Regulation Daithi Maguire & Eugene Farrell: The application of satellite-borne remote sensors for monitoring coastal erosion and ecosystems in Ireland. Anthony Corns, Robert Shaw, Gary Devlin, Toby Driver, Louise Barker, Sarah Davies, Sean Cullen & Cathal Jordan: The CHERISH (Climate, Heritage and Environments of Reefs, Islands, and Headlands) Project Jane Feeney: Valuable biodiversity: Examining the values and impacts of biodiversity offsetting in Colombia Ciara Fleming, Jonathan Turner & Mary Bourke: Palaeoflood evidence on the River Nore, South East Ireland Anthony O' Reilly: 'Assembling The (New) Urban Conditionality in 'The City After Terrorism': Security, Fear, Social Encounter and ICTs on the London Public Transport System'				